hanging (a bibliography-style hanging indent - every line except the first)

Doe, J. (2026). A very long reference title that wraps onto a second and third line, exactly the case a hanging indent is meant for. Journal of Typesetting, 12(3), 45–67.

each-line (indents the first line and the line after every , not soft-wrapped continuations)

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
This line is long enough that it wraps onto a continuation line which stays flush,
And so, dear reader, are you.

hanging each-line together (only soft-wrap continuations are indented)

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
This line is long enough that it wraps onto a continuation line which is indented,
And so, dear reader, are you.

text-align: center (the indent's own line-start reservation, not split away by centering)
